Title IV Loan Code of Conduct

Metropolitan Learning Institute (MLI) disseminates the following information annually to all of the institution's officers, agents, and employees:

The institution's officers, agents, and employees may not receive, directly or indirectly: points, premiums, payments, stock or other securities, prizes, travel, entertainment expenses, tuition payment or reimbursement, the provision of information technology equipment at below market value, additional financial aid funds or any other inducement from a guaranty agency or eligible lender in payment for securing applicants for Title IV loans.

The institution or its employees may not provide names and addresses and/or e-mail addresses of students or prospective students or parents to eligible lenders or guaranty agencies for the purpose of conducting unsolicited mailings, by either postal or electronic means, of student loan applications.

The institution will not allow any employee of the guaranty agency or eligible lender to perform any school-required function for a school participating in the Loan Program, except exit counseling. The institution will not permit guaranty agencies to conduct fraudulent or misleading advertising concerning loan availability, terms or conditions.

MLI will not permit an employee to enter into a consulting arrangement or other contract with an eligible lender.

The institution will not permit an employee working in the student financial aid office to serve on an advisory board for an eligible lender.
